Magic cuisine

05 | Magic cuisine

The magic cuisine is an essential part of your Sailing Chef experience. There's no set menu. Depending on the finest ingredients available and your personal preferences, our chef finds inspiration to serve you with unique creations.

Each morning you'll wake up to an indulgent breakfast. Lunch is a wonderful surprise, and dinner a spectacular experience.

The magic cuisine is an essential part of your Sailing Chef experience.

Your private chef finds the freshest ingredients and creates inspiring local and international dishes, cooked to perfection.

Sailing region

Ideally situated, breathtaking and with a perfect climate

We sail the breathtaking region where the Mediterranean and Aegean seas meet, and the Turkish Riviera and Greek Dodecanese Islands unite.

The sailing waters are calm, and the climate is perfect. The seawater temperature warms up in April and remains comfortable until November.

Smooth sailing conditions contribute to an excellent blue cruise experience. Datça Liman, our home base, is situated on the Datça peninsula. The peninsula is ideally located for sailing the south and the north side, ensuring favourable winds, stunning beauty and a calm sea.

Your departure harbour is always easy to reach with four major airports are in the vicinity.

- Dalaman (DLM)
 - Bodrum (BJV)
 - Rhodes (RHO)
 - Kos (KGS)

Routes and itineraries

The wide variety of options make each blue cruise feel like your first

Our sailing region stretches from Bodrum, at the Gulf of Gökova, to our home base Datça to Bozburun, Marmaris, Fethiye and Gocek. The Greek Dodecanese Islands, including Rhodes and Kos, and the crown jewel Symi are literally a stone's throw away.

As such, the region opens up to a wide variety of itineraries, making each blue cruise feel like your first. Chartering a private gulet is an excellent option if you want ultimate flexibility and an itinerary tailored to your exact desire.

Gulet charter

open up to the

Charter your private gulet and open up to the limitless possibilities of freedom. You are in control, with the Captain, the crew, and your private chef on hand to adapt the program as you desire. Choose each day's activities as the mood takes you and discover the world's leading sailing area. There is no request too big or too small. Often it will feel like the crew has anticipated your needs before you even know them.

If you're seeking privacy, the Captain can find a quiet anchorage in a hidden bay away from the crowds. For those evenings when you fancy a more social celebration, head into one of the fun port towns to get the party started.

Your home at sea

The yacht layout is designed with diverse groups in mind, with three distinct deck areas and three types of cabins.

The dining area has an oversized couch to relax and a large dining table, whereas the sun deck allows you to relax and enjoy the perfect climate. The lounge area invites for early morning coffee and sundowner cocktails.

Three types of cabins, single-bed, double-bed, and a spacious VIP master suite, ensure each guest can find the level of comfort and privacy she desires.

Cabin rental

Feel at home during your blue cruise in your suite or cabin with picture- perfect views, en-suite bathroom and air conditioning

The picture-perfect 270 degrees views let you sail along to beautiful destinations while gazing at the sort of vistas you simply won't find anywhere on land. Breathtaking coastlines pass by, and when you're lucky, a dolphin jumps out of the water just in front of your window.

The VIP Suite has a well-appointed open living area with two couches, a built-in dresser and ample closet space. In addition, the Suite has a fully equipped ensuite bathroom and air conditioning for total comfort.

Our single and double-bed cabins all have their personal touch. They offer space and comfort for you to enjoy during your blue cruise.

Each double-bed room has a queen-size bed, and the single-bed cabins offer an 80 centimetres bed. Both types provide ample storage space. In addition, the large windows let you enjoy a fantastic view of the unforgettable scenery passing in front of you.

Both cabin types have a fully equipped ensuite bathroom and air conditioning for total comfort.

Carefree all-inclusive

Sailing Chef offers a carefree all-inclusive concept. It simply means you feel carefree as you set foot onboard. The red thread throughout your cruise is the all-inclusive cuisine. Your private Chef scouts the markets for the freshest local ingredients, the best meat, and the tastiest fish every day. The crew includes an experienced freediver, so freshly caught fish cooked to perfection is no exception. The fresh fruit and salads are a feast for the eyes, and the snacks from the galley are not to be missed.

Sailing Chef offers

- Fresh coffee, espresso, cappuccino, tea, and cold water to start the day relaxed. These drinks are available all day long.
- Upon arrival, you'll receive your personal BPA-free water bottle to fill up during your stay and take home as a souvenir.
- A delicious breakfast with freshly squeezed orange juice, seasonal fruit, yoghurt with cereals, eggs to order, and homemade goodies.
- A hot and cold lunch with various local and international dishes prepared with fresh ingredients accompanied by soft drinks, beer, red, white, or rose wine.
- Sundowner drinks and snacks to enjoy while appreciating the beauty surrounding you.
- A gourmet dinner that demonstrates the Chef's magic and alternates local and international specialities. Dinner is served with red, white, or rose wine, beer, or soft drinks.

The Chef serves fruit and snacks throughout the day based on his inspiration at the moment.
